1. RECONNAISSANCE SCHEDULE UPDATE

The event organisers have just been informed there will be logging operations along Asplin Road (Folly Special Stage) during the scheduled reconnaissance time. As there will be a lot of machinery and trucks along the road, for safety reasons it is necessary to change the reconnaissance time.

Thursday 4 April

Healthway SS 3 & 7

1200 – 1500 hrs (WARC Start)

Folly SS 6 & 13 (2019 changed)

1500 – 1800 hrs

When heading out to Folly Special Stage, no access will be available to Asplin Road until all logging machinery has been moved out. An official will be at Brockman Highway / Asplin Road intersection to advise if reconnaissance is open. There will be a waiting area at Lindsay Road, just off Brockman Highway. An official will be available to let competitors know when reconnaissance of Folly is open. Please do not park on the side of Brockman Highway.

2. BUSSELTON SUPER SPECIAL RECONNAISSANCE

Please be aware that Marine Terrace will NOT be closed on Thursday evening and all road rules must be obeyed. i.e. It will not be possible to short cut the roundabout at Marine Terrace / Carey St intersection for SS1 reconnaissance.

Please ensure all drivers are clear of the course during the change over from SS1 and SS2/11 reconnaissance. Follow the instructions of the officials at all times and they will advise when it is safe to start the alternate direction reconnaissance.

3. CREW BRIEFING CONFIRMATION

The crew briefing will be held at Barnard Park Pavilion, Friday 5th April 2019 at 1700 hours. Please arrive with adequate time to sign in.

Those conducting Shakedown/VIP Rides, the briefing will be just outside Rally HQ at 1340 hours.
